A new suburban villa-town is being pro-

Belt railroads.

Yesterday Governor McDaniel appointed Hon. S. T. Morton, judge of the county court of Miller county.

There is trouble in the Second colored Baptist church over some charges affecting the moral character of the pastor of the flock.

There will be about fifty persons attending Atlanta upon the meeting of the grand jury, Knights of Pythias, at Brunswick, next week.

Yesterday Mr. Mark Berry presented a fine pair of shoes to Joe Carter who so vigorously pushed Cheshire in the walking match.

Some surprise is expressed over the delay of the grand jury in finishing up the business and making their general presentations to the court and public.

A new patent medicine company, with ample capital, has applied for a charter and will soon commence operations in this city.
It will build an extensive laboratory.

The four faces of the court house clock are now engaged in a go-as-you-please contest.
The south face has the next in the pools and is one hour ahead of its next competitor.

Complaints are again plentiful about the despoiling of the flowering plants in private lots at the cemetery and the stealing of small ornaments from the graves.

It is stated that the executive committee of the greenback-labor party will meet here on the 20th to select delegates to the national convention at Indianapolis on the 25th inst.

The police force have been ordered to keep the hackmen and bootblacks off the city from obstructing the sidewalks. The enforcement of the regulations against these parties has long been needed.

Yesterday the governor appointed the following officers for the town of St. Marys: J. M. Brown, mayor, and T. D. Hawkins, D.
J. Long, A. F. Baurdett, S. L. Burks and Jesse Flood, aldermen.

It is expected that the supreme court will, on Monday next, decide the case of Carroll vs. the city of Atlanta, involving the right of the city to establish and maintain a system of waterworks and exempting it from certain liabilities in connection therewith. The decision will be a most important one to the city.

On next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock Bishop Beckwith will preach at St. Luke's church and administer the rites of ordination. It is hoped that very many of the priests of other churches in attendance at the general convention will remain over and take part in the services.

An application has been made to the governor for permission for three military companies to come from Charleston to Savannah on the 17th and remain three days. Another like application has been sent up from Beaufort, S. C. The troops desire to celebrate the passage of the 15th amendment.

Chief Connolly, in accordance with authority accorded him at a late council meeting, to establish one or more public hack stands in the city, has nominated the following places at any one of which three hacks may stand: One on south side of Marietta, corner Marietta and Broad; one on Peachtree in front of National hotel; one on South side of Hunter, between Whitehall and Broad, and one on west side of Whitehall, between Alabama and railroad.

Yesterday Mr. Turner of the penitentiary murder; Jeff Douglas, six years, for burglary; Jack Lewis, one year, for burglary.

CHEMISTS IN CONVENTION.
The balance of Secret to Meet To-day in the Department of Agriculture, Rooms.

The convention of chemists called by Hon.
J. T. Henderson, commissioner of agriculture, will convene in the rooms of the state department of agriculture at ten o'clock to-day. It is believed that about twenty-five chemists will be present, among them some of the most honored members of the profession.
Hon. S. W. Johnson, of New Haven, the most distinguished chemist in the United States, will be here. He is the director of the profession and has written and done much for the cause. Charles G. Shepard, of Charleston, and the agricultural chemists of Alabama and South Carolina are expected.

Professor H. C. White, of Athens, has already arrived. Mr. H. Jenkins, of Yale college, Mr. Johnson's assistant, is also here. They are at the Markham.

If the object of the convention Commissioner Henderson says:
"I have been actuated by a sense of the importance of adopting a uniform and if possible a more generally satisfactory method of analysis in time to enable manufacturers of necessary to conform thereto in the proceedings of the coming season. In addition to the discussion of the methods of analysis I will suggest a consideration of the propriety or expediency of assigning relative commercial values to commercial chemists. Uniformity in this respect is hardly less desirable than uniformity in the methods of analysis. There are other questions to be considered; also among them the question of uniformity in the drawing of samples, quality, size of bottles, etc. Altogether it is a very important convention."

OUR COMING GUESTS.
A Meeting Yesterday to Further the Arrangements to Entertain the Visitors.

Yesterday morning at eleven o'clock, a meeting of the committee on entertaining the New England editors was held in Mayor McDaniel's office. The committee on assigning editors to homes reported that nearly all had been provided for, and that a reasonable amount had been secured to aid in the payment of necessary expenses. Messrs. Dunning and Wilson were appointed a committee to confer with the chairman of the committee in reference to the entertainment of the visitors.

On motion of Mr. H. I. Kimball the following gentlemen were appointed a special committee to receive the editors: E. P. Howell, chairman; E. F. Hoge, H. W. Grady, John H.
Smith, E. C. Clark, F. A. Small, J. L. Conley, H.
I. Kimball, Julius L. Brown, J. W. Fry, Volney R. Smith, W. L. Calhoun, Charles A.
Culler, B. J. Wilson, F. E. Block, E. W.
Kearney, Maj. J. B. Barnes, J. W. English, R.
B. Billock, John N. Dunn, A. C. Wylie, Emory W. J. Henderson, John A. Stephens, G. J.
McCutcheon, B. Conley, Jacob Eissas, Thomas J. C. Kimball and J. B. Goodwin.

The members of this committee and of the official committee are requested to meet at the mayor's office at eleven o'clock to-day to continue the work of arranging for the entertainment of the visitors.

Major Barnes, the Atlanta commissioner to the New Orleans exposition, has an interesting feature of the entertainment in progress.
He has secured from Commissioner Henderson permission to place in the rooms of the state department of agriculture specimens of the different articles manufactured in Atlanta. These articles will be displayed on Saturday and will form a very attractive display. Major Barnes was only encouraged yesterday by the meeting and will do all in his power to make a very creditable display.

WILLIAM MALONE PARDONED.

The Governor Signs a Pardon Order for the Fugitive from the Penitentiary.

Yesterday Governor McDaniel signed the pardon of William Malone, who in 1887 was convicted in Fulton superior court on a charge of assault with intent to murder. On October 27 of that year Malone was sentenced to four years in the penitentiary and is now at Lowe's camp at Grayville. For some time he has been nearing death's door with an incurable case of chronic bronchitis and the camp physician states on oath that there is no chance for him to live much longer.
His pardon was therefore asked as an act of humanity and was granted by the governor yesterday. The governor stated in the order that the pardon was granted solely as an act of humanity and not that there was any question as to Malone's guilt. The sentence was regarded as right and proper but the man's condition demanded his release.

AUTOBIOGRAPHY AT AUCTION.
Leonidas Johnson Prepares to Detail His Career for a Ten Dollar Note.

About a month ago in these columns was printed an account of how Leonidas Johnson, the Henry county rapist, who is under sentence of death, had sold his body and soul to the city, for $15, the remains to be delivered after the performance at the gallows. It seems that Johnson has already run through with the money thus obtained, and is now anxious to drive another bargain.
By way of inducement he says that he has been a "bad man" and committed "more evilment than any other nigger in Georgia." He is quite anxious to sell his autobiography of crime and is ready to guarantee it as bloody and hair-raising as the purchaser may desire. As Johnson is about the hugest man unhooking the newspaper men do not dare to trust him even upon the liberal terms he has proposed.

THE POLICE-DAMAGE SUIT.
The Jury Find a Quick Verdict in Favor of the Defendants.

In July last Mr. E. Sexton, living near Peachtree road, beyond the city limits, lost a fine half Jersey heifer. On tracing the animal he found that Mr. W. C. Humphries, a butcher, living near by, had bought the heifer from a couple of young negroes for $10 and butchered it. The negroes were arrested and told their story whereupon Humphries was arrested for receiving stolen property.
He was placed in the station-house by the police and kept there for six or eight hours. When taken before a magistrate he was discharged from custody, but later the grand jury indicted him and he is now under bond for trial upon the charge. Humphries in the meantime has been out on bond and has been seen housekeepers Fouts and Buchanan, and Chief Connolly for malicious arrest, false imprisonment and abusive treatment while under arrest. He claimed $3,000 from the above named officers. On this trial the case was fully shown that the officers acted under proper authority, that they treated Humphries with due respect and did not abuse him in any manner whatever. The jury very promptly found a verdict in favor of the defendants.

THE BOSS BEAN EATER.
A Countryman Gets Away with a Peck of Snap Beans at one Sitting.

Yesterday a lean, lank countryman named Dart Johnson, and hailing from DeKalb county, said he could eat a peck of beans and would do it if anybody would pay for the beans. He found a man who was willing to pay for the beans to see the fellow eat them. A peck of snap beans was bought and were carried into the "Reading Room" kitchen and boiled with fat meat for three hours. At six o'clock an immense dish with beans piled up high was taken hot and smoking to the Reading Room and placed on a table.
The dish was an immense affair and the pile of beans reminded one of a big country dinner prepared for a dozen people. The countryman sat down, picked up a fork and made a dive into the beans. With a nervous movement he shoveled beans into his capacious mouth and the heap grew fine by degrees and beautifully less.

"Are you a professional bean eater?" asked a Conventioneer man as the rich aroma set his appetite edge.

"Never eat this many before," answered the countryman, as a fork of beans was hurled into the unfathomable depths.

At a quarter past six the fellow had eaten half the beans, and in twelve minutes later he had cleaned the dish and arose from the table and ordered a schooner of beer. The beer was set out and the fellow turned to the glass and drained it without stopping to catch his breath. He then took a cigar, lit it and walked down the street filling the damp evening air with the odor of the consuming weed.

GEORGIA CARRIAGE BUILDERS.
The Carriage Builders' Association in Annual Session in Concordia Hall Yesterday.

The Georgia carriage builders' association convened in Atlanta yesterday morning.
This is the regular annual meeting of the association, and was attended by twenty-nine active members, fifteen honorary members, and two life members. The association deliberated in Concordia hall and was called to order by the president, Mr. R. H.
Jones, of Cartersville. To the president called by Mr. J. W. Weitzel, of Atlanta, the secretary, there were responses from W. K.
Booth, of Atlanta; J. F. Auld, of Elberton; J. A.
Curtis, of Atlanta; A. S. Finney, of Atlanta; W. L. Jarvis, of Atlanta; W. H. Lewis, of Social City; W. N. Pennington, of Monroe; J. G.
Smith, of Barnesville; J. M. Smith, of Atlanta; G. L. Lemmons, of Atlanta; N. C. Spence, of Atlanta; W. B. Smith, of Jonesboro; George W. Walker, of Atlanta; R. S. Collins, of Macon; J. D. Bagwell, of Flowery Branch. In addition to these active members F. C. Fisher, of Newark, N. J.; D. E. Fisher, of Cleveland, Ohio; P. E. Murray, of Jacksonville, Fla.; Wm. Ward, of Cincinnati; C. F. Bates, of Atlanta; Wm. Fowler, of Spartanburg, S. C.; J. W. Dorsey, of Griffin; S. C. Neal, of Abbeville, S. C.; H. W. Quackenbush, of Burns, N. Y.; B. E. Lynch, of Baltimore; M. Stuenkel, of Henderson, Ky., all honorary members, were present. Immediately after the roll-call Mr. Jones, president of the association, delivered an address full of good sound argument. He declared that the association was as well as a business association was in making the record of the association such as every one would be proud of. He then declared the association in a healthy and prosperous condition, and knowledge from some other member had gathered upon a firm foundation and cited as an evidence of that fact that it had been in existence for five years. The president's address was interesting and was listened to with was quite interesting and was listened to with great attention. He closed by expressing power and influence. The finance committee submitted a lengthy report which was received. Then the committee upon "subjects for discussion" submitted a report to the national association at New Haven, Conn., in October last submitted their report. The report declared that there was a strong probability that northern manufacturers would soon come south with an abundance of money to materially aid in developing the resources of the south. The banquet was submitted a report. The banquet will be given at Jack, Ward & Co's palace restaurant to-night. At five o'clock the association adjourned to convene again this morning at 10 o'clock.

THE DENTISTS.

YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS OF
THE CONVENTION.

Several Matters of Considerable Importance Came Up—Should Patients be Given Anesthetics—An Interesting Review of the Diseases and Means Adopted for their Cure.

Dr. Morrison, a distinguished dentist of St. Louis, was present at the meeting of the Georgia dentists yesterday, and participated in the deliberations.

Dr. R. B. Adair read a paper on Riggs's disease, pyorrhea alveolaris. The doctor gave an interesting review of the disease and the means adopted for its cure.

Dr. Catching said he had had very little experience with the disease. Dr. Riggs is preparing a work on the treatment of the disease. The discussion of the disease was indulged in by Dr. Campbell, Dr. Parsons, Dr. Morrison, Dr. Holland, Dr. Catching, Dr.
Chapman, and finally the subject was passed.

Dr. Coyle read a scientific paper on physiology of anesthesia and methods of resuscitation, after which a short discussion on artificial respiration followed. Dr. Holland favored the use of anesthetics.

Dr. Wardlaw read a paper on the chemistry of caries. The paper was exceedingly interesting and was discussed by the meeting.

Dr. Coyle of the executive committee, reported from the board of censors charges against Dr. A. H. Best, of Savannah, for violating the rules of the association by improper advertising. Doctors Wardlaw, Adair and Tignor were appointed a committee to investigate the charges.

The convention then adjourned for dinner.
On resuming the session the committee pointed to prepare a report on the death of Dr. Arthur C. Ford, made a report.

The organization of a national dental association was discussed in Washington, D. C., was discussed, and the following delegates to the first convention were selected: Drs.
Catching, Winkler, Wardlaw, Parsons, Carpenter and Bouton.

Dr. Parsons read a paper on progress in scientific and artistic dentistry. The paper was a very valuable contribution to dental literature and the doctor was given a rising vote of thanks for it.

Dr. Thompson spoke favorably on celluloid for dental plates. Dr. R. W. Thornton read a paper on dental literature.

All the papers were ordered printed.
The charges against Dr. Best were on the report of the committee. When claiming heavy damages from Martin for slander. Webb was formerly the head deacon in Providence Colored Baptist church, of which Martin is pastor. Webb was also president of Jerusalem Branch of the same church. Webb had been in the church for the sum of one dollar and a half per month. "Some sturmbunt" got up between the said Webb and one of the rent installments and Martin said Webb had been "cheating, and swindling, and robbing and defrauding the church of her rights." Webb upon this complaint was chucked out of the church and his deaconship annulled. He thereupon sued Rev. Martin for damages. The evidence offered on the trial did not correspond with the allegations in the complaint and on motion of the defendant the case was dismissed. Webb was about to be ordered when the plaintiff dismissed the case and announced that he would renew it in another form.

SEVEN MINUTE SCHEDULE.
Mr. Peters Announces His Intention to Improve the Street Car Facilities.

In an interview with Mr. Richard Peters, president of the Atlanta street railroad company, yesterday, he stated that the 7 1/2 minute schedule on Peachtree street was working successfully and in every way satisfactorily to the company; that the company is now engaged in laying the necessary turn-outs, and had purchased the horses, etc., in order to place the same schedule on Marietta street.

"This change is demanded," said Mr. Peters,
"by the rapid increase of traffic on that line."
He stated that so soon as the city placed Whitehall street in proper condition, the company expected to place a 7 1/2 minute schedule on that line; also, that the demand for transportation of the people of the city was as well as for the accommodation of the local travel, has been greatly augmented within a short time past. Mr.
Peters further stated that it was the purpose of the company as soon as practicable to build a branch road from Whitehall extending through that part of the city in the direction of the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia railroad shops and to the city having increased in population so rapidly as to render a street car line a necessity.

THE NEW ORLEANS EXHIBIT.
A Number of Manufacturers Sign Agreements to Make Collective Exhibit.

Major Barnes, the Atlanta commissioner to the New Orleans exposition, is doing more vigorous work than ever in getting up the collective exhibit. He has secured from a large number of manufacturers and writers agreements that they will make exhibits.
Among those who have agreed to go into the special Atlanta building and make good displays are the following: Wilkins, Parsons & Co., bridge builders.
Adair's shoe works.
Globe Cotton Planter manufacturing company.
Georgia machinery company.
Atlanta furniture factory.
Festley furniture factory.
J. H. T. Trowbridge.
Atlanta cutlery works.
Atlanta iron foundry.
Jarvis carriage factory.
Atlanta machine works.
Swift specific company.
Clark seed cotton cleaner company.
Schumann chemical laboratory.
Stevens' watch factory.
Valter A. Taylor "premium cologne." Winslow gin works.
James P. Harrison.
National surgical institute, appliances.
Van Winkle's gin works.
Others have not been seen, but this list shows the drift of feeling.
The interests in the exhibit is perhaps deeper now than ever before and Major Barnes is THROWN FROM A HORSE.

Master Steve Cox Mounted a Wild Horse and Gave Excellent Yesterday.

Yesterday afternoon Master Steve Cox, the eight-year-old son of Captain Ed Cox, was thrown from a horse and badly but not seriously hurt. The young man is quite an equestrian and will mount a horse that has never had a bit in his mouth, if permitted to do so.
Yesterday afternoon he got upon a pony that was none too gentle, and started for a ride.
The pony did not move to suit the lad, and a free rein of the whip was the result. The lashes were not relished by the horse, and while he was prancing about Steve gave him a sudden jerk which caused him to spring sidewise, and which unseated the rider. The child was taken to his home, and although it was at first thought he was seriously hurt, he soon convinced everybody that he was in no danger, and got up. However, his right shoulder was badly bruised and a bad scalp wound was

A Life's Achievement.
Next Friday will be presented in our city for the first time that beautiful drama, "A Life's Achiev-ment." Judging from the success the piece obtained in the north and west, and from the favorable appreciations bestowed upon the principal artists, Miss Louise Riel and Mr. James Neil, the closing of the theatrical season will be marked by one of the best performances of the year. It will be a matter of great pleasure to the city to see the fact, because the young artist, Mr. James Neil, has been for years one of our citizens, is in reality a Georgia boy, and was one of the most brilliant graduates of the university of Athens. The Denver Tribune thus eulogizes him:
"The young man is a fine actor, and his performance leaves the author of our unwarrantable assaults on the text. He dresses his part and knows how to make it effective. The part of Captain Hampden is a splendid one, and he plays it with such a fine and simple style, and with such a well-controlled imagination, that he scores an unequalled success last evening."

Professor G. Douglas Coleman, 74 North Broad street, is the agent for the southern states for the celebrated medical batteries of Dr. Glass, of Philadelphia. Physicians who contemplate purchasing batteries should examine for themselves and get the best advice as to the cheapest in the end.
Parties suffering from kidney troubles and obscure diseases that have defied the efforts of other physicians should not abandon hope until they have consulted with Professor Coleman. Remember, consultation free.

SPECIAL NOTICE.
To Our Customers:
S. H. Phelan, our rival in business, filed a bill on yesterday and procured Judge Hammond to pass an order placing our business in the hands of a receiver, claiming that we were indebted to him three hundred and seventy-five dollars, and had refused to pay it.
At the proper time the whole matter will be fully explained to the public, showing Phelan's motives for his conduct. For the present, we will state that we do not owe Phelan the three hundred and seventy-five dollars, and that we will have the receiver discharged and resume our business as soon as Judge Hammond hears the case on Friday.

A Great Demand for Houses.
Owing to the large number of hands employed in the Air Line shops, the Palace Hotel, the Fulton mills, Essex & May's factory, the Air Line and Georgia railroad freight depots, the foundry of Valter A. Taylor & Co., and in the many small mills and manufacturing on Decatur street, there is a great demand for neat cottages to rent near that street. Within the past year a nice little village of cottage homes and a neat Presbyterian church have been erected between the Boulevard and Decatur street. Persons having money would find it profitable to buy lots on or near Decatur street and the Boulevard south of Wines.
